

TN Fire Training Online Course

Subject: Situational Awareness

Length of Course: 3 Hours

Course Objective: This course is designed to improve personnel safety at both emergency and non-emergency events. The student will be introduced to the concepts of and the importance of maintaining good situational awareness. The students will be shown methods to implement and utilize this tool to improve the safety of those operating at the event as well as the public

Outline:

1. Situational Awareness on the Fireground
2. Situational Awareness Best Practices
3. Barriers To Situational Awareness
4. Crew Resource Management

Course Location: www.tnfiretraining.com

Test: Given at end of course

Certificate of completion issued upon successfully passing final test with a score equal or greater than 70%.

NFPA Correlation:

NFPA® 1001, 6.1.2, 6.2.2, 5.3.5, 5.2.4, 5.3.1

References:

- <http://www.fireengineering.com/articles/print/volume-154/issue-8/features/crew-resource-management-for-the-fire-service.html>
- <http://modernsurvivalblog.com/security/barriers-to-situational-awareness/>
- The Firefighters Support Foundation's Situational Awareness on the Fireground
- Situational Awareness for Emergency Response: Richard Gasaway PhD
- Crew Resource Management Concepts | Jones & Bartlett Learning